Knights Inn Canada celebrates opening of Knights Inn Montreal

Oakville, ON (September 21, 2007) – The province of Quebec welcomed its newest franchise with the opening of the Knights Inn Montreal. Conveniently located 10 minutes from the downtown core and the Pierre Elliot Trudeau Airport, the location appeals to business and leisure travellers alike. The 75 room property also features a heated outdoor pool, meeting facilities, complimentary continental breakfast and free guest parking.

"We're pleased to welcome the Knights Inn Montreal as a part of our Canadian family," said Glen Blake, President of Knights Inn Canada, "with their focus on service they'll help Knights Inn continue to offer travellers quality economy lodgings they can count on across Canada."

The former Motel Raphael has been undergoing renovations over the past two months to become in accordance with the standards of the Knights Inn brand.

This is the 12th Knights Inn to open in Canada and is the first in the province of Quebec. The Knights Inn Montreal is also the first property to open under the brands' new "Fresh Approach," which focuses on a higher level of quality, consistency, service and support.
