Knights Inn Canada expands East and West

Economy hotel chain continues their drive for new franchises

Oakville, ON (December 5, 2008) – Knights Inn Canada Franchise Systems Limited announced today the opening of its newest franchise locations in Fredericton, New Brunswick and Regina, Saskatchewan.

“We’re excited about the further expansion of our brand across the country,” stated Glen Blake, President of Knights Inn Canada, “Both properties will offer travellers clean, quality accommodations in their perspective markets.”

The new Knights Inn Fredericton has undergone renovations to achieve Knights Inn Canada standards. The property features 30 guest rooms, free parking, kitchenettes, and complimentary continental breakfast.

The new Knights Inn Regina is located at 1009 Albert Street, Regina, Saskatchewan and features free parking, an onsite restaurant and complimentary continental breakfast.

Knights Inn has been on the drive for new franchises after launching its “Fresh Approach” in 2007 which focuses on a higher level of quality, consistency and service across the brand. The brand is expected to open several additional properties in Q1 of 2009.
